The screenshot shows a white header with the JPL logo and the text "1x | Office of the Director". Below the header is a navigation bar with links for "Home", "North Star & Values", "Management", "Caltech", and "NASA Vision". A search bar is located at the top right. The main content area features a headline "Dave Gallagher Named 11th Director of JPL" with a subtext about his selection and a photo of him. Below this is a detailed biography of Dave Gallagher. At the bottom of the page is a section titled "Latest News from the Office of the Director".
